1 Traveling by Plane?

Don't let your luggage get confused with someone else's. Make your own luggage tag with a generated QR code.

Consider traveling on the day of the holiday. Lines will be shorter and you'll likely pay less!

Download mobile apps for your airline carrier to stay up-to-date on your departure, arrival status and even luggage.

Don't bring wrapped gifts in your carry-on baggage! Either pack them in your checked luggage or wait to wrap them once you have arrived at your destination.

2 Traveling by Car?

Plan your route ahead of time. Download mobile apps to see which route will work best.

Check weather and be prepared for what to expect on the road. Expecting snow? Having some kitty litter on hand will help give you traction if you get stuck in snow.

Service your vehicle ahead of travel. Check your tires, coolants, battery, oil, belts and hoses!

Never let gas level get below one quarter of a tank.

3 Traveling with Kids?

Talk about the experience and set ground rules before you leave. If your children know what to expect, it's less likely that they'll act out in fear or confusion for what's going on around them.

Let your kids get the wiggles out. Before flying let them play on a playground or let them walk up and down the aisle during flight.

Stock up on inexpensive, new activities so you can give your children something different every couple of hours.

Bring their favorite snacks, but also bring some new novel treats to get their attention.

4 Traveling with Pets?

Leave the front seat for humans—your pet will be safest secured in a crate or in the back seat of the car.

Take plenty of rest stops to allow your pet to exercise and go to the bathroom.

Carry a current photograph of your pet in case you pet is lost during the trip.

Don't forget to pack their favorite toys, treats and medications.
